

health + safety services

H2M's Industrial Hygiene Division provides a multitude of health and safety services that can be tailor-made for any industry.

- Job Hazard Analysis – Site walkthrough and consultation with industry experts; review of current safety plans and relevant safety regulation.
- Safety Plans – Writing safety plans based on site-specific activities in order to ensure compliance with OSHA and local regulations.
- Employee Training – Topics include: Confined Space Entry, Lockout / Tagout, Emergency Response, Eye Protection, Fall Protection, Foot and Hand Protection, Head Protection, Bloodborne Pathogens, Hazard Communication (HazCom), Hearing Conservation, Lifting and Ergonomics, Respiratory Protection, Storage and Transport Requirements, Silica Exposure Control, and Slips, Trips, and Falls .
- Health and Safety Management – Instituting management systems including safety databases, notifications to OSHA, employees and medical professionals, scheduling and employee record keeping updates.
- Indoor Air Quality (IAQ) Services include: responding to employee complaints as well as sick building syndrome (SBS) investigation, mold, lead, asbestos, and vapor intrusion services.
- Accident Investigation and Litigation Assistance – Services include: site inspections, expert witness services and document review.

Please contact us for additional information.

References are available upon request.

architects + engineers
practical approach. creative results.

For more information, please contact Thomas King, CIH at tking@h2m.com
phone 631.756.8000 x1605 | 538 Broad Hollow Road, Melville, NY 11747 | h2m.com